The Home Prospective

How much pleasurable anticipation is had in planning the new home. Have you in your planning given proper thought to the plumbing equipment? From basement laundry to bedroom lavatory the plumbing is important. To plan the equipment best, call or let us call upon you and show you the hundreds of artistic designs of "Standard" fixtures, our installation of which insures satisfaction.

The evenly heated home is a happy home and you should have the comfortable use of the entire house in winter as well as in summer. This will be the case when we install a heating system designed to heat satisfactorily and uniformly your home, no matter what it's peculiar construction or wind exposure may be. Estimates free on plumbing or heating equipment.

JACKSON ITEMS

Mrs. Chas. Jieger went to St. Louis Thursday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Hopper are the proud parents of a fine big boy.

Mrs. Blanche Dickey left Monday for Muskogee, Oklahoma, to visit friends.

Blucher Sperling and wife made a trip to Appleton Tuesday where the former transacted business.

Arthur Sachse and wife are spending the holidays in Fredericktown the guest of the formers mother.

Miss Alice Vinard, who is teaching school at Desloge, came home to spend the holidays with homefolks.

M. G. Williams of Yonkers, N. Y., is here for the holidays, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Williams.

Misses Mary and Lydia Kies are in Evansville, Ind., for a short visit with their sister, Mrs. Theodore Roth.

J. A. Mays was brought over from the Cape the other day to serve a twenty-day jail sentence for disturbing the peace.

Forest McGee, colored, charged with burglary, was brought out from the Cape Friday to await the action of the circuit court.

Miss Florence Daley left the first of the week for Fidler, Texas, to visit her sister, Mrs. Clara Allen, who has been in poor health.

Emil Penzl was in Jefferson City the latter part of last week to take the bar examination. He received notice this week that he had passed the examination in splendid shape.

N. J. Randol came in unexpectedly last Thursday to see his relatives and friends. He left here twenty-five years ago for Nebraska, where he has spent most of his time. Very few recognized him, as he was only a small boy when he left here.

Rev. L. N. Garnett has been tendered the pastorate of the First Baptist church at this place and will fill the pulpit on next Sunday. Rev. Garnett is a brilliant young minister and an excellent singer. We congratulate the Baptists on securing such a worthy young man.

Monday evening while attempting to cross the railroad tracks on Main street, Fritz Doering was struck by a car of the C. G. N. train, which was backing up towards the station. He was knocked quite a distance, being picked up unconscious. All kinds of reports were circulated and even the coroner was notified that a man had been killed, but the next morning the injured man was nearly alright, feeling a little sore. Too much anticipated Christmas celebration. — Items.

Start the New Year right by subscribing for the new paper that will make its appearance with the closing of the old year. It won't be a "one galloped" affair, leaning with the load, but a thoroughbred, in the broadest sense. In fact it will be a real newspaper.
